

NCC YOGDAN

The National Cadet Corps (NCC) has offered its volunteer cadets to assist the civilian authorities to fight COVID-19 under 'Exercise NCC YOGDAN'.

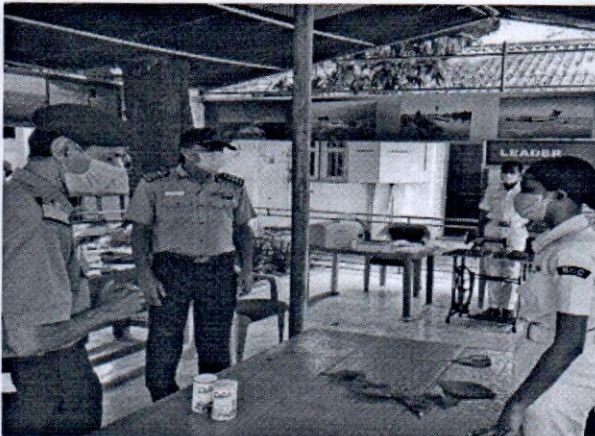

Vel Tech University National Cadet Corps Naval Wing never stopped working for the nation even at the time of the coronavirus pandemic. Under "Exercise NCC Yogdan" Vel Tech NCC help the nation at its best. NCC was helping by distributing masks, free food, getting deployed at containment zones and raising awareness amongst the public on coronavirus.

Wearing mask became very essential during the pandemic. Cadet S. Sabbarish and Cadet S. Vishnu Deepak put up their efforts in mask stitching at 1 TN Naval Unit from May 2020. Cadet S. Sabbarish also contributed in regulating traffic by helping Traffic Police during the pandemic.

During pandemic Cadet S. Vishnu Deepak participated in cycling rally for COVID-19 awareness from Thiruvannamiyur to Thanjavur

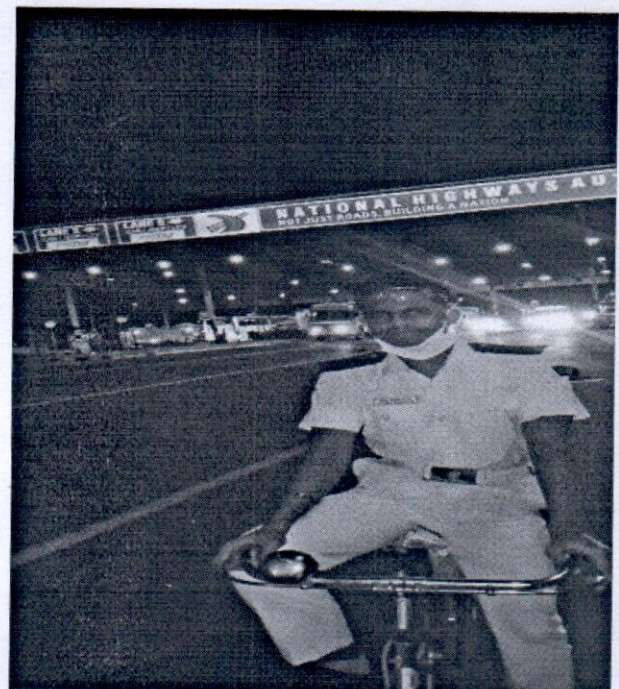

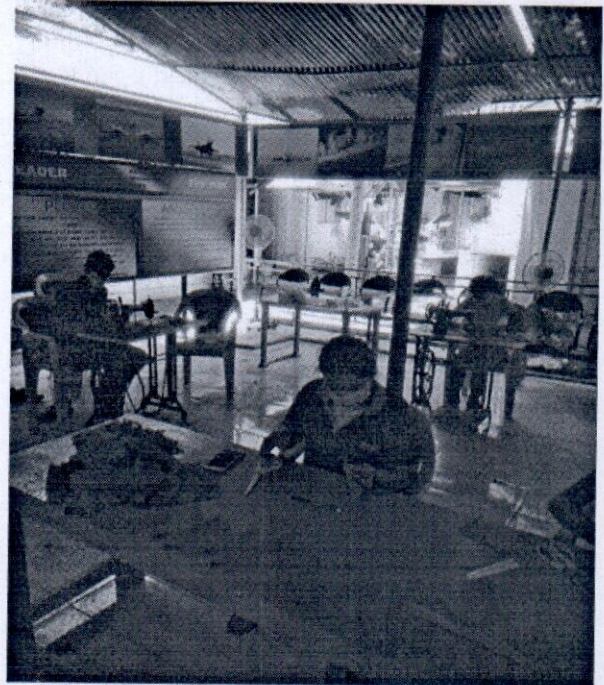

During the pandemic many people suffered due to shortage of food. Cadet Praveen as a part of volunteer service contributed by providing food to 500 peoples.

Awareness to the society is important for the people to stay safe and Healthy. The Cadets of Vel Tech NCC Naval wing conducted Cancer awareness Rally on 7 November 2020 and awareness on Hand wash day on 9 December 2020.
