WHEREAS: The Parties are post-secondary institutions offering numerous programs of study, within their respective jurisdictions,

AND WHEREAS: The Parties wish to enhance the level and areas of cooperation between them, on the terms contained herein;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants herein contained, the Parties mutually agree as follows:

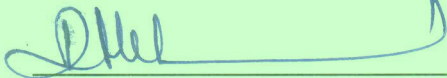

1. The Parties agree to explore potential areas of cooperation between them, including but not limited to developing programs for academic and cultural interchange, scientific research, and other activities and areas of mutual benefit.
2. The areas of cooperation may include any program offered at either university that is felt to be desirable and reasonable.
3. The Parties agree that any specific program or area of cooperation hereunder, shall be subject to mutual consent, availability of funds, and written approval of each university. Such programs may include, but are not limited to:
 - a) Exchange of scholars (professors, advanced graduate fellows, and/or researchers) and professional staff members;
 - b) Exchange of students for study and research at both universities;
 - c) Promotion of joint research projects in the fields of interest;
 - d) Exchange of research materials and information; and
 - e) Promotion of Articulation programs.

4. Each institution will encourage the enrolment of qualified students in the other's academic programs. Each student involved in these programs will be subject to the admissions requirements and tuition and fees of the host university, or the admission requirements enumerated in supplements to this agreement.

5. The terms of such mutual assistance shall be agreed upon in writing by both universities prior to the initiation of any particular program of activity.

6. This Agreement shall be in full force and effect from the date of signature hereof for a period of five (5) years. Either university may terminate this Agreement at any time by giving six months' notice in writing to the other university. In the event of termination, programs underway shall be allowed to be completed according to the terms that have been agreed upon.
