

International Agreement of Cooperation

Westfälische Hochschule Gelsenkirchen Bocholt Recklinghausen, Westphalian University of Applied Sciences, Germany
and
Vel Tech Technical University, Chennai, India

Wishing to further relations between our two institutions in international education, research, service, and other related activities, we do hereby commit to mutual and reciprocal co-operation to achieve our shared goals.

Areas of cooperation may include any programme of study and services offered by either institution, which is felt to be desirable and feasible for the development and strengthening of our co-operative relations. Development of an agreement concerning any specific programme for departments and institutes to be defined will be contingent on mutual consent, availability of funds, and approval of each university.

Tuition fees will be waived by both institutions for the activities concerning students.

Such programmes may include:

1. Academic programming such as student exchange, internships and placements.
2. Graduate level exchanges for training or teaching.
3. Exchanges of faculty or research fellows for teaching or research.
4. Collaborative research projects, workshops or conferences.
5. Exchanges of other institutional professionals or information.

Supplemental agreements governing all areas of co-operation under this International Agreement of Cooperation shall be negotiated and decided separately and shall come into effect upon the signature of the authorized university administrator.

The agreement comes into force at the time of signing and is valid from one year to the next. One year's written notice is required for termination of this agreement.
