The IQS SCHOOL OF MANAGEMENT, IQS SCHOOL OF ENGINEERING and VEL TECH RANGARAJAN DR. SAGUNTHALA R&D INSTITUTE OF SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY agree to establish a student's exchange program in order to provide participating students with an opportunity to internationalize their curriculum on the following conditions:

1. Up to 2 students a year may enroll at the other university. The student coming from Vel Tech Rangarajan Dr. Sagunthala R&D Institute of Science and Technology can be either going to study to the IQS School of Management or to the IQS School of Engineering. The unit of calculation is students per semester, and one student a year equals two student/semesters. It is expected that the number of exchange students calculated in student/semesters will be balance and it cannot exceed the number of 2.
2. In the case that the imbalance has achieved the number of 2, each university can send more students as a free movers paying the tuition fees.
3. Neither the universities nor the exchange students involved in this program pay tuition fees to the host institution. Exchange students will continue to pay any fees as required to their home university. Exchange students are responsible for all their personal costs, including housing, transportation, food, health and other required insurances and books.
4. Students studying as exchange students from both universities are responsible to purchase a Health, accident and repatriation insurance.
5. Both parties agree to have a third party liability insurance to cover the damages they may incur while they are in each campus.
6. The home university is responsible for screening and selecting students for this exchange program. In general, the home university will provide the host university with six months' notice of participating exchange students.

7. Exchange students are enrolled as candidates for degrees at the home university and they are not eligible to be awarded a degree at the host university.
8. Exchange students may study in any part of the host university where they meet the academic requirements and prerequisites and provided there are vacancies in the requested courses. These include any language requirements for entry.
9. All exchange students are required to obtain prior approval of any teaching units before commencing subjects of study at the host university. These approvals will usually be organized in advance through the application process.
10. Transcription of results and academic records will be provided to the home university as soon as practicable after the completion of a period of exchange study.
11. Students enrolled as exchange students are subject to all the rules and regulations of the host university, and the laws and procedures of the country in which that university is located.
12. The host university will provide exchange students with academic counseling; assistance at enrolment and information on courses of study; and access to library facilities.
13. Exchange students are responsible for obtaining a visa and any related documents necessary to ensure participation in a period of exchange study or internship. The host university will provide the documents and support to obtain the visa.
14. The host university will provide assistance in finding accommodation but there are no obligations on the participating universities to provide accommodation, and no guarantees on the provision of accommodation which can be expected by exchange students.
15. The terms of this agreement may be amended by mutual consent in writing.

16. The agreement shall remain in place for five years after signature, and the parties may agree to review it with a view to extending its term.

17. This agreement may be terminated unilaterally by either party, with twelve months' notice, although all students enrolled at that time as exchange students must be permitted to complete their exchange studies.

18. Each party acknowledges that the other party is required to meet certain obligations under its home country's education and immigration laws and subordinate legislation.

19. Each party must undertake the promotion of the education and training services of the other party in a professional manner, and maintain the integrity and reputation of the other party and its respective international education and training industry.
20. The parties acknowledge that each party is bound by privacy and data transfer laws and practices of its home country and the parties hereby comply with the provisions of the privacy and data transfer laws and practices in respect of any of its students, staff or research connected to this Student Exchange Agreement. The laws and practices may, in certain cases, restrict the transfer of students' personal information between universities.
