Objective:

To offer the importance of Linux Operating System in Engineering Education and also the importance of any open source software in Learning Environment. Also provide knowledge to the students about how to develop their career using Linux and Open Source Software.

Inaugural:

Venue: Online mode through Microsoft teams platform

Date: 09-11-2020 at 10.00 AM

Resource Person:

Mr. Baskar
Chief Executive Office
LinuXpert Systems, Chennai.

The guest lecture was started with the welcome address given by Dr N Malarvizhi, Professor, Department of CSE. Following that Dr N Malarvizhi introduced the resource person to the students. The session was started immediately exactly at 10.15am.

The session was started by Mr. Baskar with the introduction about open source software to the students. He discussed to the students about the term open source that it refers to something people can modify and share because its design is publicly accessible. He also mentioned that open source software is software with source code that anyone can inspect, modify, and enhance. Programmers who have access to a computer program's source code can improve that program by adding features to it or fixing parts that don't always work correctly.

Next he was discussed about the importance of Linux Operating System in Engineering Education and the reasons for giving preferences to use Linux than Windows operating system by Technology Companies, Researchers, Developers and User community. The various reasons he was discussed are open source software nature, secure, perfect for programmers, easy for software updates, customization, free to use and better community report.

He motivated the students to start learning the Linux operating system. He mentioned that Linux is everywhere starting from wrist watch to super computers. He explained the steps and ways to the student about how to get started with Linux and how they can develop their career using Linux and Open Source Software.

Finally, he discussed about various Career Opportunities in Linux and Open Source Software. The students those who are having significant open source experience can get the designation as Embedded Linux Developer, Open Source Developer, Application Developer, Open Source and so on.

Outcome of the Event:

The students are able to understand the importance of Linux operating system and various career opportunities in the open source software.
