CIRCULAR

By direction, it is informed that this Institution realizes that the plants are a vital part of the Biological life cycle. The Landscape at Vel Tech campus covers so many plants and trees, keeping in mind the importance of maintaining green campus environment in this Institutional campus.

The staff and students are expected to take part in the green campus awareness programmes frequently conducted in the campus with the help of biologists and social activists. It is expected that the staff and students would make best use of the landscape and green campus environment without causing any damages to the flowering plants and fruits yielding trees in the campus.
