Organizes
A Research Seminar on

"WHY IS MY PAPER NOT GETTING ACCEPTED?"

About Research Seminar

Researchers face several challenges in successfully doing research, writing their thesis and publishing their work in conferences and journals all of which are necessary to attain their degree. The main objective of this seminar is to help researchers in the above mentioned and other related areas. This one-day seminar will focus on several key aspects of research like choosing a research problem, adopting appropriate research strategy and method, carrying out research work, writing conference and journal papers, best practices in thesis writing, avoiding plagiarism in writing and research, and effective presentation.
